

CARREERS

The success of our Company is built on the expertise and knowledge of each and every employee that contributes daily to our enterprise.

We're proud of our diverse global team and we're always looking for others who can help bring our vision to life. The success of our company is built on the collective efforts of every single employee working with us.

We continuously look for passionate people to join our teams as we are constantly expanding and widening our business portfolio. We are always on the search to find the best industry talent and we can offer a wide array of career opportunities throughout multiple areas:

- Merchandising
- Design
- Production
- Quality control
- Sales
- Pattern design

If you are interested please feel free to contact us with a full resume using the following email address: humanresource@polarisfamily.com

